

I love the fantastic and imaginary. I have never been interested in working from observation. I don't try to visualize the final image. I use automatic processes that keep me from knowing the end result.